Constitution Party of Pennsylvania

We Can Retake the Republican Party

This has been tried over the years. Dr. Ron Paul was the best shot, in recent years, of returning the Republican Party to constitutional conservatism. But Dr. Paul, and others like him, have received little to no support from GOP leadership. In spite of Dr. Paul's massive popular support, the Republican Party has resisted changing from their descent into the liberal progressive agenda.

The term RINO is used to describe a politician who is "Republican in Name Only." This describes a politician who is a member of the Republican Party, but their actions do not comport with the party platform nor are they representative of the party base. This term implies an exception and not the rule; however, as "RINOs" become more plentiful, it is apparent that the Republican Party is moving away from its platform and away from its conservative base.

If I Leave the Republican Party, the Democrats Will Win

Over the last 150 years the Democrats have repeatedly won despite the Republican Party being in full force. In a duopoly, the elections swing back and forth and back again like a pendulum. This allows the Republican Party to only take America one step forward for every two steps the Democrats take us backwards and still claim that they are moving America in the right direction while they are continuing to allow the decline of America.

If I Leave the Republican Party, I Will Not Be Able to Vote in the Primaries

Political parties use primaries, caucuses, and conventions to select candidates for various offices. Pennsylvania uses a closed primary system where party members are only permitted to vote in their own party's primary.

This means that voters must decide which party they wish to promote and which party they want to participate with in selecting candidates. If the Republican Party does not allow conservative candidates to win, then remaining with the Republican Party merely to vote in the primaries with them is an exercise in futility and a wasted vote.

Leaving a party that has left you, to join a party that upholds conservative values, takes courage and commitment to Liberty.

The Constitution Party National Platform

We declare the platform of the Constitution Party to be predicated on the principles of The Declaration of Independence, The Constitution of the United States and The Bill of Rights According to the original intent of the Founding Fathers. These founding documents are the foundation of our Liberty and the Supreme Law of the Land.

The sole purpose of government, as stated in the Declaration of Independence, is to secure our unalienable rights given us by our Creator. When Government grows beyond this scope, it is usurpation, and liberty is compromised.

We believe the major issues we face today are best solved by a renewed allegiance to the original intent of these founding documents.
